

RALPH GIERHARDS

ANTIQUES / FINE ART

A Pair of Significant Bozzetti Ceiling Lamps

Circa: Circa 1834 - 1840

Patinated terracotta, brown glazed plaster

125 cm

49.2125984251969

Circa 1834 - 1840

Terracotta

125 cm (49 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches)

Patinated terracotta, brown glazed plaster

Attributed to Baron Henry de Triqueti (Conflans-sur-Loing 1804 – 1874 Paris)

Fully sculpted with neoclassical features. The lamps may have been intended for a church. It is possible that a noble family commissioned them for their private chapel.

Literature:

Isabelle Leroy-Jay Lemaistre, Hazan 2007, Henry de Triqueti 1803 - 1874: Le sculpteur des princes, p. 30 fig