A lady, wrapped in a partially sculpturally cascading drapery, rests on a divan in a classical pose.
