

A Pair of Candlesticks of Gilded Bronze

Circa: Circa 1810

56 cm

22.0472440944882

Circa 1810

Gilded Bronze Patinated Bronze

56 x 0 cm (22 x 0 inches)

Paris, France

Attributed to Claude Galle (1758–1815)

Gilded and patinated bronze. Each lamp has four light arms resting on a star-shaped globe supported by three owls standing above lion's mouths on a baluster barrel decorated with masks and fish.

Exhibition:

Château de Fontainebleau, France, designed for Josephine

Literature:

JP. Samoyault, Pendules and bronzes d'ameublement entrés sous le Premier Empire, Paris, 1989