

RALPH GIERHARDS

ANTIQUES / FINE ART

A pair of double-flamed table candlesticks with cherubs

Circa: ca1750

A pair of double-flamed table candlesticks with cherubs, Meissen, Germany

20.5 cm

0' 8¹/₁₆"

A pair of double-flamed table candlesticks with cherubs

German, Meissen, circa 1750/1760

Johann Joachim Kändler (1706 Fischbach/Arnsdorf – 1775 Meissen)

Porcelain, polychrome painting, gold decoration, bronze mounting, Vincennes flowers

Blue sword mark

On a curved, slightly raised roccaille base, figure of a cherub standing next to a vase. Behind it, symmetrically extending branches with Vincennes flowers and spouts.

Literature:

For the model, see Bergmann, Sabine and Thomas: Meissener Figuren, Vol. III.1, Erlangen, 2017, p. 465