

RALPH GIERHARDS

ANTIQUES / FINE ART

A pair of candlesticks with cupids

Circa: ca 1750

A pair of candlesticks with cupids German, Meissen, around 1750/60

19 cm
0' 7 1/4"

18th Century

ca 1750

Porcelain

19 x 0 cm (7 1/2 x 0 inches)

Germany

A pair of candlesticks with cupids

German, Meissen, around 1750/60

Johann Joachim Kändler (1706 Fischbach/Arnsdorf - 1775 Meissen)

Porcelain, polychrome painting, subtle gold decoration, bronze mounting, Vincenne flowers

On a curved, slightly raised roccaille base, a figure of a standing Amoretto as a baker. Behind it is a slim shaft with a carrying ring and thumb rest in the shape of a leaf. Symmetrical branches with Vincenne flowers starting from the base. Finally, drip tray in the form of a trefoil leaf, cylindrical spout attached between three acanthus leaves;

Literature:

For the model, see Bergmann, Sabine and Thomas: Meissen Figures, Vol. III.2, Erlangen, 2017, p. 39